AMENDMENT TO
MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT (MOA)
BETWEEN
DHARMSINH DESAI UNIVERSITY AND
MR. PRADIP LAXMIKANT DALAL
FOR FINANCIAL AID

The following additions have been made to the original MoA which was signed on December 10, 2023.

- 1) Depending on the interest income from the endowment fund, the application review committee may decide to award more than Rs. 25,000 of financial aid to any number of students.
- 2) The application review committee will carry forward at least Rs. 50,000 in emergency reserve for assistance to any student that has lost a main income earner or the main income earner has become fully or partially disabled during the academic year. This emergency reserve is in addition to the original endowment fund of 25 lakh Rupees.
- 3) During the academic year, any student could apply for emergency financial assistance due to untimely death or disability of the main income earner.
- 4) The student will submit the "Application for Emergency Financial Aid" to DDU Alumni Association (DDUAA).
- 5) The DDUAA will consult with the application review committee and the Vice Chancellor and make a decision about amount of the financial aid for the student.
- 6) Depending on availability of the emergency reserve funds, the review committee may approve any amount between RS. 5,000 and 25,000 to the applicant.
